

TERM DEPOSIT PLUS (IRREVOCABLE) AGREEMENT

1. TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR USE OF THE TERM DEPOSIT PLUS (IRREVOCABLE) AND PAYMENT OF INTEREST

- 1.1. On the first day of the Deposit Term specified in the Agreement, the Deposit amount shall be transferred from the Deposit Service Account to the Deposit Account specified in the Agreement, which shall be for the sole purpose of storing the Deposit, and the Depositor shall not have any right to manage or use the Deposit Account.
- 1.2. The Depositor may not increase the amount of the Deposit in the Deposit Account during the term of the Agreement.
- 1.3. Deposit Service Account means a bank or savings account opened with the Bank in the name of the Depositor for the purpose of servicing the Deposit of the Depositor, i.e., to receive the amount of the Deposit, to repay the amount of the Deposit and to pay interest. The Depositor shall have the right to dispose of the funds in the Deposit Service Account in accordance with the bank or savings account agreement concluded between the Bank and the Depositor, as applicable.
- 1.4. The Bank shall calculate and pay to the Depositor the interest at the rate specified in the Agreement on the Deposit in the Deposit Account. Interest shall commence from the first day of the Deposit Term and shall accrue throughout the Deposit Term. No interest shall be accrued for the last day of the Deposit Term. Interest shall be calculated using the following formula: the amount of Deposit x interest rate / 100 / actual number of days in the year (365 or 366) x 30 (if interest is calculated for part of a month, the actual number of days of that month is used instead of 30). The amount of interest for the entire Deposit Term is equal to the sum of the interest for all months in the period. Depending on the terms of the Agreement, the Bank shall pay interest on the following dates: if it is specified that interest is payable monthly, it shall be paid on the last day of each month; if it is specified that interest is payable annually, it shall be paid on the last day of the last month of each year in the month in which one year from the date of conclusion of the Agreement has elapsed; and if it is specified that interest is payable upon maturity of the Deposit, interest is payable on the date of maturity of the Deposit. Interest shall be paid by transferring the accrued interest amount to the Deposit Service Account.
- 1.5. Upon expiry of the term of the Deposit specified in the Agreement (if the Depositor has not requested a renewal) or upon termination of the Agreement by the Depositor in accordance with the procedure set out in the Agreement, the Bank shall transfer the amount of the Deposit and the accrued interest (if any) to the Deposit Service Account on the last day of the Agreement.
- 1.6. Not more than sixty (60) calendar days prior to the expiry of the Deposit Term, the Depositor shall have the right to submit to the Bank a request in writing and by telephone to renew the Agreement. In this case, the Agreement shall be renewed for the same Deposit Term and for the same Deposit amount, or for the amount specified in the Depositor's request if a partial withdrawal of the Deposit has been applied. In the event of renewal of the Agreement, the Bank shall apply to the Depositor the interest rates approved by the Bank on the date of the renewal of the Agreement for such Deposit type and term. Upon renewal of the Agreement, the start date of the Deposit Term shall be the end date of the previous Deposit Term. If the Depositor does not submit to the Bank a request for renewal of the Agreement, or submits a request without complying with the deadlines set out in this paragraph, the Agreement shall not be renewed and shall expire on the expiry of the Deposit Term specified in the Agreement. The number of renewals shall not be limited and the Depositor shall, for each renewal, submit a request to the Bank in accordance with this paragraph.
- 1.7. In the event of renewal of the Agreement, the total amount of the Deposit and accrued interest, if payable at maturity, shall be credited to the Deposit Service Account on the maturity date of the Deposit and the amount of the Deposit shall be transferred into the Deposit Account at the end of the same day. The Depositor shall ensure that on the maturity date of the Deposit, the Deposit Service Account contains the full amount of the Deposit, failing which the Agreement shall not be renewed and the renewal clause in the Agreement shall expire automatically and without any separate notice to the Depositor.

- 1.8. If the terms and conditions of the Agreement concluded with a renewal clause do not comply with the terms and conditions (minimum Deposit amount, Deposit Term, etc.) applicable to the appropriate type of deposits on the date of renewal of the Deposit Term, or the Bank has stopped accepting deposits of that type, as well as if there is insufficient amount of money in the Deposit Service Account at the time of the renewal of the Agreement for the renewal of the Deposit, or if the Deposit cannot be renewed due to other reasons beyond the Bank's control (seizure, death of the Depositor, the Depositor is subject to international financial, economic and other sanctions, etc.), or as a result of legal requirements for the prevention of money laundering and terrorist financing (e.g., the Depositor fails to submit an updated Know Your Customer Form, an updated identity document, etc.), the Bank shall have the right not to renew the Agreement automatically without any separate notice to the Depositor.
- 1.9. The Depositor shall not have the right to terminate the Agreement early and/or withdraw part of the Deposit before the expiry of the Deposit Term set out in the Agreement (including in the case of renewal of the Agreement), except as provided in paragraph 1.10 of the Agreement.
- 1.10. A Depositor who is a natural person (consumer) shall have the right to terminate the Agreement early and withdraw the entire Deposit or, without terminating the Agreement, to withdraw part of the Deposit in the event of special circumstances, which are published on the Bank's website at www.sb.lt and provided as an annex to the Agreement. When withdrawing part of a Deposit, the minimum amount for that type of Deposit, as published on www.sb.lt, must remain in the Deposit Account. In this case, the Depositor shall submit to the Bank a request and documents justifying the special circumstances. If the documents justifying the special circumstances are submitted to the Bank within the time limit published on the Bank's website at www.sb.lt and in the Annex to the Agreement from the date of occurrence of the special circumstances, the Bank shall pay the Depositor the interest accrued for the early withdrawal of the Deposit, otherwise no interest shall be paid to the Depositor. If the Depositor withdraws part of the Deposit, the interest accrued on the part of the Deposit shall be paid at the end of the maturity of the Deposit together with the interest accrued on the remaining amount of the Deposit.
